DIGILEARN

DigiLearn aims to to increase the skills and competences needed for digital learning solutions development for adults - curriculum design and development for digital learning for adults, technology skills, activities and assessment design for digital learning for adults. The project aims to increase job-market readiness of adult learners and prevent exclusion from the job market of adults due to lack of relevant training.

OBJECTIVES

- To increase the skills and competences needed for digital learning development for adults - curriculum design and development for digital learning for adults, technology skills, activities and assessment design for digital learning for adults.
- To increase the competences, job-market readiness of adult learners and prevent exclusion from the job market of adults due to lack of relevant training. When adults are able to effectively quaire new skills online, they will increase their employability capacity.

ACTIVITIES

- Project management and implementation
- Research and guide for effective digital learning for adults
- Development of a platform for online learning design
- Dissemination and sharing project results

RESULTS

- Reach 15 organizations providing education and training for adults who will update existing or create new online learning solutions for adults
- Reach a total of 300 adult learners with the created digital courses and workshops based on the DigiLearn framework in the duration of the project and 450 in the consecutive 2 years
- Reach 2 universities per country providing courses for adult learners and support them in digitaling their course.

PARTNERS

- EduAge Ltd. (BG - coordinator)
- Human Innovation Hub Ltd. (IE)
- CRSLaghi (IT)